

Community

Restorative Justice Hubs

Presented by Joshua Brooks, MPA
Restorative Justice Hubs Coordinator
Adler University's Institute on Public Safety and Social Justice

What are the Community RJ Hubs?

RJ HUBS ARE A COMMUNITY LED RESTORATIVE JUSTICE APPROACH TO CRIME, CONFLICT, AND SUSTAINABILITY.

RJ HUBS ARE SAFE SPACES IN THE COMMUNITY WHERE COMMUNITY IS WELCOMED AND SUPPORTED IN BUILDING HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS, EXPRESSING THEMSELVES, ADDRESSING TRAUMA, AND DEVELOPING NECESSARY SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES.

RJ HUB MODEL IS DIRECTLY INFORMED BY THE LATEST SCIENCE ON TRAUMA. IT IS DESIGNED AS A STRATEGY FOR HELPING PEOPLE TO MOVE BEYOND THE EFFECTS OF ADVERSE CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCES, GUIDING THEM TOWARDS SUSTAINABLE HEALING AND GROWTH.

THE CASE FOR

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

EXPLAINED

What is the mission?

- Through a restorative justice philosophy, RJ Hubs create safe and healthy community spaces where community members and disconnected and court involved youth and adults experience belonging, healing, opportunity and positive transformation.

- Restorative Justice Hubs create healthy and nurturing communities where community members are welcomed and supported. Youth and families are engaged in pro-social, hospitable, and supportive ways that enable community members to express themselves and be supported in becoming responsible members of their community.

What is the vision?

5 Pillars

1) Radical hospitality

2) Accompaniment

3) Building Relationships with youth, adults and families

4) Relentless Engagement of systems and stakeholders

5) Learning Community

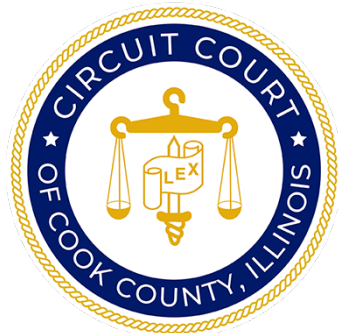

What is the Leadership Circle?

- The RJ Hubs are guided by the Leadership Circle, a centralized supportive structure of RJ Hubs leaders who that coordinates existing hubs and ensures the successful launch of new RJ Hubs.
- Meaningful relationships is at the core
- The Leadership Circle provides support to each other and provides ideas that contribute to collective impact

NEWLIFE
CENTERS

Community

Restorative Justice Hubs

www.rjhubs.org