FAMILY LAW RESOURCES

Carol Furnish

The Northern Kentucky Bar Foundation (NKBF) seeks, "to promote the administration of justice, to educate the public about the importance of law in their daily lives, and to enhance the image of the legal profession in our local community." Under this mission, the NKBF awards grants to local programs which embody the above attributes in relation to the legal profession and the law in general.

NKBF grants are usually in the range of $500 - $1,000 but will and can fluctuate up or down depending on the program.

If you are interested in obtaining an NKBF grant, please forward a letter detailing the program for which you are seeking funding, a general idea of the donation amount being sought, and any other information you believe would help us understand how your program helps to serve the NKBF mission. Please note that our sponsorship will be published in your materials.

The NKU Chase Law Library maintains a core collection of family law resources for both Kentucky and Ohio. This guide pinpoints the best resources and indicates whether the information is available in print and/or online. Treatises were traditionally a print-only resource, but the major titles are available in both formats. It is important to remember that not every treatise is available online.

Here are two cost saving tips when searching treatises online:

1. Review the scope or database description before you start your research. You want to verify the coverage and the currency of the information.
2. Use the "Table of Contents" feature and scroll down to your issue. The "Table of Contents" method of searching can be much cheaper than keyword searching depending on your contract.

As with most legal issues it is easiest to start with a treatise on the topic. These family law treatises offer not only an overview of the law, but include citations to relevant statutes, key cases, West Topic & Key numbers, forms, checklists, and worksheets. As always, you are welcome to stop by the Reference Desk or call 859-572-6484 if you need assistance.
