Notes

Clinics and Externships:  Students (1) must have completed a minimum of 28 law school credits prior to the commencement of any field placement work and must be in good academic standing at the time the field placement begins; (2) must have satisfactorily completed BLS-Research and BLS-Writing; (3) must be accepted at a pre-approved field placement location (placements are listed in Simplicity) or obtain field placement director’s approval before beginning a field placement that has not been pre-approved; and (4) must complete all registration enrolment forms required by the field placement director.  Finally, the student cannot be simultaneously enrolled in another live-client clinic course.

Legal Drafting – Litigation:  Throughout this course, students will become familiar with a variety of legal documents commonly used in civil litigation.  By the end of the course, students should be able to draft basic legal documents such as pleadings, discovery, motions, and proposed judgments.
